Ya esa suptesu jagarti kamam kamam Puruso nirmimanah | Tadeva sukram tad brahma tadevamrtamucyate | Tasminlokah sritah sarve tadu natyeti Kascan | etad vai tat | |	य एष सुप्तेषु जागर्ति कामं कामं पुरूषो निर्मिमाण :। तदेव शुक्रं तद् ब्रह्म तदेवामृतमुच्यते । तस्मिंल्लोका: श्रिता: सर्वे तदु नात्येति कश्चन । एतद् वै तत् ।।

That Person who is awake in those that sleep, shaping desire after desire, that, indeed is pure.
That is Brahman, that, indeed, is called the immortal. In it, all the worlds rest and no one ever goes beyond it.
This, verily, is that, kamam kamam: desire after desire, really objects of desire.
Even dream objects like objects of waking consciousness are due to the Supreme Person. Even dream consciousness is proof of the existence of the self. No one ever goes beyond it: of Eckhart: 'On reaching God all progress ends."

Article: The Festive Balance Sheet – Balancing Wealth, Happiness and Professional Responsibilities

THEME: FESTIVE SEASON & FINANCIAL WISDOM

CA Bhupinder Dixit

India is a country where festivals are not merely occasions of celebration; they are reflections of our culture, traditions, values and economic activities. From Diwali and Dhanteras to the wedding season that follows, the festive period brings joy, prosperity and a significant increase in financial transactions.

While families prepare their household budgets, businesses witness increased sales, and markets experience heightened economic activity, Chartered Accountants have an equally important role to play in ensuring that this prosperity is supported by financial discipline.

A balance sheet generally reflects the financial position of an individual or an organisation. However, during the festive season, we can also reflect upon our personal balance sheet.

Assets beyond money: Good health, family relationships, professional credibility, knowledge and integrity are assets that cannot be measured in monetary terms.

Liabilities beyond loans: Unnecessary expenditure, financial indiscipline, excessive borrowing and professional compromises are liabilities that can affect long-term stability.

Investments beyond wealth: Investing in education, professional development, technology and ethical values generates returns that last much longer than a festive season.

For Chartered Accountants, the festive season also brings increased responsibilities. Businesses require assistance with tax planning, GST compliance, accounting of festive offers, inventory valuation and financial reporting. Our responsibility is not merely to complete these assignments but to ensure that every transaction is properly recorded and every compliance requirement is respected.

As we celebrate prosperity, let us remember that true wealth is not simply what we accumulate, but also what we preserve.

This Diwali, let us prepare a balance sheet of life where integrity is our capital, knowledge is our investment, relationships are our assets and happiness is our ultimate profit.

Wishing everyone a prosperous and meaningful festive season!

Article: Festivals, Ethics and the Chartered Accountant – A Celebration of Values

THEME: PROFESSIONAL ETHICS & ICAI VALUES

Indian festivals carry messages that extend far beyond rituals and celebrations. Diwali symbolises the victory of light over darkness, Dussehra celebrates the triumph of good over evil, and the festival of Gurpurab reminds us of truth, service and compassion.

Interestingly, these traditional values have a deep connection with the professional responsibilities of a Chartered Accountant. The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) has consistently emphasised professional ethics, independence, integrity and accountability as the foundation of the CA profession. A Chartered Accountant is not merely a person who prepares financial statements, files returns or conducts audits. A CA is a custodian of public trust. Just as festivals encourage us to remove negativity from our lives, the profession demands that we remove unethical practices from our professional conduct.

Integrity – The Light of Our Profession

During Diwali, we illuminate our homes with diyas. Similarly, integrity illuminates our professional journey. An honest opinion, even when inconvenient, is more valuable than a favourable opinion influenced by external pressure.

Independence – The Strength of Our Judgment

An auditor must remain independent in thought and action. Professional decisions should be guided by facts, applicable laws and ethical principles rather than personal relationships or commercial considerations.

Accountability – The Real Meaning of Responsibility

Every certificate signed, every report issued and every opinion expressed carries responsibility. Our professional signature is not just a formality; it represents our commitment to the profession and public interest.

Continuous Learning – Keeping the Flame Alive

With changes in taxation, technology, artificial intelligence and regulatory frameworks, continuous learning has become essential. ICAI plays a significant role in supporting members through professional development programmes, technical updates and knowledge-sharing initiatives. As members of this prestigious profession, we must remember that our reputation is built not only through qualifications and achievements but also through the values we demonstrate every day.

This festive season, let us pledge to celebrate not only with lights and sweets but also with honesty, transparency and ethical excellence.
After all, the brightest diya a Chartered Accountant can light is the one of professional integrity.

Aricle: The Festival Economy – How Chartered Accountants Keep India's Festive Markets Accountable

THEME: INDIAN ECONOMY, GST & THE ROLE OF CAs

CA AYUSHREE KHANNA

The festive season is one of the most vibrant periods for the Indian economy. From traditional markets and retail showrooms to e-commerce platforms, small manufacturers and large corporate houses, almost every sector experiences increased commercial activity.

Festivals such as Navratri, Dussehra, Diwali and Christmas create a substantial demand for consumer goods, automobiles, electronics, jewellery, clothing, gifting products and food items.

Behind this celebration of consumption lies a complex financial and taxation ecosystem in which Chartered Accountants play an important role.

1. GST and the Festive Marketplace

Festive discounts, promotional schemes, combo offers, free gifts and seasonal sales require careful GST treatment. Businesses need to understand the distinction between discounts, gifts, supplies made without consideration and other promotional arrangements under the GST framework.

Chartered Accountants help businesses structure transactions appropriately, maintain documentation and ensure accurate GST reporting.

2. Inventory Management and Financial Reporting

For retailers, festive season inventory can represent a significant portion of annual business operations. Proper stock records, valuation methods and reconciliation of physical inventory with books of accounts become particularly important.

A well-maintained accounting system helps businesses identify actual profitability rather than relying merely on increased sales figures.

3. Digital Payments and Financial Transparency

India's digital payment ecosystem has transformed festive shopping. UPI, cards, payment gateways and online marketplaces have made transactions faster and more convenient.

However, increased digital transactions also require proper reconciliation between bank statements, payment gateway settlements, sales records and GST returns.

4. Supporting Small Businesses and MSMEs

For small traders, artisans, manufacturers and local entrepreneurs, the festive season can contribute significantly to annual revenue.

Chartered Accountants act as financial advisors, helping these businesses manage working capital, understand tax obligations, maintain books of accounts and make informed business decisions.

5. Technology and the Future of the CA Profession

With artificial intelligence, cloud accounting and automated reconciliation tools becoming increasingly accessible, the role of Chartered Accountants is evolving.

The modern CA is not just a compliance professional but also a strategic advisor who helps businesses make informed financial decisions.

ICAI's continuous initiatives towards digital learning, technological advancement and professional development are helping members prepare for this changing business environment.

The festive season reminds us that India's economic strength lies not only in large corporations but also in millions of small businesses, traders and entrepreneurs.

As Chartered Accountants, our contribution goes beyond numbers. We help build a financially disciplined, tax-compliant and transparent business ecosystem.

Because behind every successful business celebration, there should be a strong foundation of financial accountability.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to नवोदय: Regional Conference 2026

CA. Navya Malhotra

CHAIRMAN, NIRC OF ICAI

A PERSONAL INVITATION

Dear Professional Colleagues,

It gives me immense pleasure to invite you to the Regional Conference 2026 of the Northern India Regional Council of ICAI, themed "नवोदय – Charting the Future of the Profession."

The Chartered Accountancy profession is witnessing a defining moment where technological advancements, global integration, and evolving business models are reshaping the way we create value. Artificial Intelligence, innovation, and new-age opportunities are no longer aspirations—they are the foundation of the profession's future.

With this vision, the Regional Conference has been thoughtfully curated to provide an enriching platform for learning, collaboration, and meaningful dialogue. Through insightful technical sessions, inspiring keynote addresses, and interactions with distinguished speakers and industry leaders, the conference aims to equip participants with the knowledge and perspectives required to thrive in an ever-changing professional landscape.

I warmly invite you to be a part of this flagship gathering and join us in embracing new possibilities, strengthening our professional excellence, and collectively charting the future of our profession. I look forward to welcoming you to an inspiring and memorable Regional Conference 2026.

CA. Navya Malhotra
